CHICAGO NEWS NAMES 2017 MAZDA CX-3 BEST CROSSOVER OF THE YEAR

Recognized for its unparalleled combination of premium amenities, efficiency and value, the2017 Mazda CX-3 has been awarded as the "Best Crossover of the Year"by Chicago News.

The 2017 CX-3 won competing against four other vehicles in the segment and was recognized for its "seamless integration into the entire Mazda lineup."

The award for "Best Crossover of the Year"was presented to Robert Davis, Senior Vice President, Special Assignments during the 2017 Chicago Auto Show.

"Mazda CX-3 is a perfect balance between style and substance with its beautiful design, upscale interior and all-weather utility," said Robert Davis, senior VP, Special Assignments, Mazda North American Operations. "We're thrilled that the 2017 CX-3 was named Best Crossover of the Year by Chicago News, as it's a perfect vehicle for on-the-go Chicagoans who desire the ruggedness of a crossover SUV in a smaller, more efficient package for the urban jungle."
