

ALL- NEW 2017 MAZDA CX-5 TO PREMIERE AT LOS ANGELES AUTO SHOW

HIROSHIMA, Japan —Mazda Motor Corporation announced today that the all-new 2017 Mazda CX-5 will make its world premiere at the Los Angeles Auto Show, open to the public November 18-27. Mazda will hold a press conference at 12:50 p.m. on November 16, the first of two press days.

With the all-new CX-5 crossover SUV, Mazda has further refined every element of its design and technology to offer new dimensions of driving pleasure. Taking the KODO—Soul of Motion design concept to a new level, the company has honed the car's beauty, imparting a powerful combination of sophistication and strength.

MAZDA'S EXHIBITS AT THE LOS ANGELES AUTO SHOW

Vehicles scheduled for sale	All-new Mazda CX-5 [world premiere], Mazda MX-5 RF
Vehicles on sale	Mazda3, Mazda6, Mazda CX-3, Mazda CX-5 (current model), Mazda CX-9
Reference exhibits	Mazda Prototype (race car) [world premiere]
Technology exhibits	SKYACTIV-G 2.0 (gasoline engine) SKYACTIV-G 2.5 (gasoline engine) SKYACTIV-G 2.5T (direct-injection turbocharged gasoline engine)

#

Note: The all-new CX-5 will launch as a 2017 model in the U.S. Model year designations will vary by region.

Additional assets available online:

PHOTOS (1)

<https://news.mazdausa.com/2016-10-27-All-New-2017-Mazda-CX-5-To-Premiere-At-Los-Angeles-Auto-Show>